

Colonial Seal Company

Specializing in custom shaft seals and globally sourced alternatives to SKF/Chicago Rawhide, National, Garlock, or Freudenberg/NOK

- We supply a comprehensive range of standard and custom rotary shaft seals in metric or inch. Whether you need OEM brand oil seals, or can accept globally sourced alternatives from ISO certified manufacturers – Colonial Seal can help meet your requirements either way.
- You can save at least 30% over brand name seals.
- Need small quantity, or do not want to pay for tooling – then consider our custom-metal cased seals or all-rubber lathe cut parts in almost any size, quantity, or material – within days!
