FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Colonial Seal Company Hires Mechanical Seal Expert

Westville, NJ- Colonial Seal Company, a New Jersey based specialty distributor of standard and custom sealing solutions welcomes Frank Jasionowicz as the newest addition to the sales department. Frank is our product manager for mechanical seals and is responsible for business development, sales and procurement. Additionally, he will provide design, selection and engineering support for our customers. "I'm thrilled to be a part of the Colonial Seal team," says Frank Jasionowicz. "My entire career has been spent in the mechanical seal industry and I look forward to providing the best solutions to our current and future customers."

Frank is a graduate of the Naval Nuclear Power School and he served for 6 years in the United States Navy as a Nuclear Machinist Mate maintaining and operating machinery on nuclear submarines. He comes to us with over 25 years of extensive experience as a salesman at John Crane Inc., where he designed and recommended mechanical seal systems to support numerous projects in the refinery, chemical and power industries. He also presented specialized seminars on mechanical seals in the waste water, power, chemical, and pharmaceutical industries. Over these years he developed expertise in the following pumps: IDP, IR, Flowserve, Union, Goulds, Duriron, Myno, Mono, ITT, AC, Aurora, Blackmer, Dean, Deming, Fybroc, Gorman Rupp, Lawrence, Liquiflo, Morris, PACO, Peerless, Sulzer, Vaughn, Waukesha, Zoeller, Carver, Johnston, Fristam, Triclover, Viking, Lightning, and Ekato.

"Frank will be an essential part of our efforts in growing our mechanical seals division," says Shannon Merkhofer, Colonial Seal General Manager. With an exclusive agreement with Vulcan Seals Inc., a UK based company; Colonial Seal is able to provide a wide range of replacement mechanical seals for U.S. Seals, PAC-Seal, Apex, John Crane, AES, Burgmann, Flowserve, ITT Flygt, ITT Grindex, Gormann-Rupp, Godwin, Honda, Terex, and Alpha Laval. Since 1986 Vulcan Seals has established worldwide distribution centers, including one in the USA.
